THE DISTRIBUTION INDUSTRY IS NOT A SEXY INDUSTRY!

DON'T BELIEVE EVERYTHING YOU HEAR!

What is distribution? We often think of the word "Middleman" and view it as an ugly term. A distributor is the "Middleman" but not in the boring way most think...

A distributor is the "highway of opportunity" between the manufacturer and the customer. The distributor compliments both facets by adding value, efficiency and economic solutions that cannot be surpassed.

A COMPANY OF OPPORTUNITY

WHAT A DISTRIBUTOR OFFERS A CUSTOMER:

- Provide a wide range of products from key manufacturers located nationally
- Extend credit to all account sizes where a manufacturer couldn't
- Research new innovative product offerings and present solutions on each
- Have supply on hand for a wide breadth of product vs. having to deal directly with multiple manufacturers who cannot sell small quantities to customers
- Provide goods and services immediately
- Troubleshoot
- Support, Provide & Sell the complete package
- Cost saving opportunities
- Energy efficiency options
- Environmentally sound solutions
- Other business prospects

WHAT A DISTRIBUTOR OFFERS THE MANUFACTURER:

- Strategic alliance & product sourcing
- Stock warehousing
- Local market presence
- Product & sales expertise
- Channels to market
- Complimentary product opportunities
- Cost saving opportunities
- Ease of billing & shipping & distribution of product
- Marketing, advertising, promotions & public relations
- Extended support staff
- Simplified access to market

THE HIGHWAY OF OPPORTUNITY

The opportunities do not stop with our customers & manufacturers. The tremendous avenues for career growth with a distributor far exceeds the limits of other industries.
